of South Carolina.)

This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (the “Commission”) on the request of Symtelco, LLC (“Symtelco” or the “Company”) to withdraw its Application for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide facilities-based local exchange telecommunications services and resold long distance telecommunications services, including operator services, within the State of South Carolina.

By letter dated November 29, 2004, counsel for Symtelco advised the Commission that on behalf of Symtelco and pursuant to S.C. Code § 58-3-225(E), counsel seeks approval for the Company’s pending Application for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to be withdrawn and that the Application be withdrawn without prejudice to the refiling of same.

Upon consideration of this matter, the Commission concludes that the request of Symtelco to withdraw its Application should be granted without prejudice.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

1. The request of Symtelco, LLC to withdraw its Application for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide facilities-based local exchange telecommunications services and resold long distance telecommunications, including operator services, within the State of South Carolina is granted without prejudice.

2. This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further Order of the Commission.
